Still Negative, Looking For A Bounce

- The FBM KLCI fell 1.4% on Friday and 2.2% W.o.W on a weekly basis, weighed down by heavy selling-pressure on Tenaga Nasional after the national utility giant was slapped with a hefty tax bill by the tax authorities. Tracking the Main Board, the lower liners – the FBM Small Cap (-0.6%), FBM Fledgling (-0.8%) and FBM ACE (-1.2%) also retreated, together with majority of the broader market.
- Market breadth was negative as losers more than doubled the winners, while traded volumes grew 22.0% to 2.6 bln shares amid the year-end portfolio rebalancing moves.
- Major key benchmark decliners include Nestle (-70.0 sen), Petronas Dagangan (-60.0 sen), Petronas Gas (-56.0 sen), Tenaga Nasional (-56.0 sen) and Hong Leong Financial Group (-46.0 sen), while broader market losers were Dutch Lady (-RM1.28), Chin Teck Plantations (-28.0 sen), United Plantations (-22.0 sen), Pentamaster (-21.0 sen) and Aeon Credit (-18.0 sen).
- Heineken Malaysia (+60.0 sen) led the broader market winners list after recording an upbeat quarterly corporate earnings result, followed by Zecon (+20.5 sen), Sarawak Oi Palms (+13.0 sen), Master-Pack (+12.0 sen) and Litrac (+11.0 sen). There were only four gainers on the FBM KLCI last Friday; namely, Malaysia Airports (+7.0 sen), Kuala Lumpur Kepong (+4.0 sen), Genting Malaysia (+3.0 sen) and Maybank (+1.0 sen).
- Key regional benchmark indices were painted red amid the ongoing public unrest in Hong Kong that has threatened to unravel the U.S.-Sino trade talks. The Nikkei (-0.5%) extended its losses to the second-straight day, together with the Hang Seng Index (-2.0%) and the Shanghai Composite (-0.6%). ASEAN equities, meanwhile were mixed on Friday.

- Wall Street also declined last Friday, weighed down by a widespread risk-off sentiment as the Dow, the S&P 500 and the Nasdaq all closed 0.4% lower amid the still uncertain trade talks.
- Earlier, notable European indexes finished mostly in the negative territory, weighed down by renewed trade tensions between China and the U.S. after President Donald Trump signed a bill supporting Hong Kong protestors. The FTSE ended 0.9% lower, albeit slightly cushioned by gains in Ocado after the online grocer announced its partnership with Aeon. Both the CAC and DAX (-0.3%) also closed down by 0.1% respectively.

THE DAY AHEAD

- Hopes for a month-end window dressing quickly turned sour last Friday after sentiments dipped following the huge tax bill levied on Tenaga Nasional Bhd. The sell-down has also resulted in the key index looking decidedly negative that is back to its six-week low.
- Although the immediate market outlook has turned dour, there is still hope for some mild reprieve after last Friday's steep falls as bargain hunting activities could emerge to not only to arrest the fall, but to also allow the key index to find support at around the 1,560 level – its six-week low. However, we also think that any near term upside will be limited due to the generally frail market conditions as Malaysian equities are still devoid of significant catalysts that are compounded by the prognosis of tepid corporate earnings and economic growth prospects in 2020. If the 1,560 level fails to hold, the support moves back to the psychological 1,550 level. The resistances, on the other hand, are at 1,570 and 1,580 respectively.

- The lower liners and broader market shares are also undergoing their consolidation spell after the most recent uptrend has seen the FBM Small Cap index gaining more than 8.0% in the past few months. Under the prevailing environment, we see more profit taking activities as market players could opt to lock-in some of their winning positions ahead of the year-end break, albeit we think there could be some fresh nibbling towards the end of the year as some players may take up positions for next year.
